

Western Shore Treasury.
Annapolis 29th January 1831. }

To the Honorable

The House of Delegates of Maryland,

The Treasurer for the Western Shore, in obedience to their order of the 22d, submit the following report.

On the 6th January 1810, the General Assembly of Novr. session 1809, by ch. 113, authorized the Managers named therein, to raise by Lottery, not exceeding the clear sum of one hundred thousand dollars, and to expend it in erecting in the City of Baltimore, a Monument or Statue to the memory of Washington.

By ch. 77, of 1816, they were authorized so to raise, such further sum as might be necessary to complete it.

By the first report of the Managers to the Treasurer, in pursuance of the act of 1824, ch. 125, it appears that they had raised and expended in erecting the said Monument

The proceeds of six Lotteries—amounting to $96,214 29

And, the interest on loans, and profit on public stock, in which the said proceeds were invested until wanted for the work amounting to 14,579 46

making $113,793 75

They have received from the Treasury, the following sums in pursuance of the said act of 1824, ch. 125, viz.

In November, 1825, $17,753 27

In December, 1826, 13,582 44

In December, 1827, 14,249 35

45,585 07

$1,259 71

They also received, for interest on so much of those sums as they loaned until wanted, and in the year 1830, in pursuance of the act of 1829, ch. 165, they received from the Treasurer in five per cent. stock of the state redeemable out of the yearly proceeds of
